MOUNT VERNON, OHIO.

THURSDAY MORNING, JAN. 29, 1885.

100,000 more foreigners came to this country in 1884 than in 1883.

The scare about the cholera in St. Louis seems to be without foundation.

MARCH fourth will be march forth indeed to the office-holders at Washington.

WHEAT and rails are going up, and in five weeks Grover Cleveland will be President.

JUDGE J. W. F. WHITE, of Pittsburgh, has failed for $75,000, with assets about half that amount.

JUDGE JONES, of Delaware, is occasionally spoken of as a Republican candidate for Governor.

The next Democratic State Convention in Pennsylvania will be held on the 24th of August next.

TAMMANY HALL will send a delegation of five hundred to the inauguration of President Cleveland.

The Illinois Democrats want President Cleveland to appoint Congressman Springer Secretary of the Interior.

SCHUYLER COLfax left an unimpaired estate valued at $500,000, which he divided between his wife and son.

Our noble old "Mossback" friend, Matt Martin, is talked of for master at Columbus. He shall have our vote.

JOE DAVIS turned out with the rest of the boys to pay his respects to the Old Bell when it reached New Orleans.

S. C. DALLAS, Republican postmaster at Salineville, Columbiana county, is short in his accounts, and been arrested.

The friends of Senator Garland, of Arkansas, sent confident that he will be invited to take seat in the Cabinet.

The dynamiters must be treated as assassins and not as patriots. They must be punished as any other criminal.

DR. NEWMAN has ended the bitter feud in the Madison Avenue Church, New York, by sending in his resignation.

At Mt. Washington, N. H., Jan. 22d, the thermometer fell to 50° below zero, and a blizzard was blowing 100 miles an hour.

GENERAL McCLELLAN has been chosen Grand Marshal for the inauguration ceremonies at Washington on the 4th of March.

The Legislature of Missouri in joint session on the 23d formally elected Geo. G. Vest United States Senator to succeed himself.

LOUISVILLE has got the itch in the worst possible form. One-fourth of the population are scratching as if "Old Scratch" himself was let loose.

The creditors of the great iron manufacturing firm of Oliver Bros. & Phillips, Pittsburgh, have granted an extension, and the business will go on usual.

The Democratic members of the Indiana Legislature have unanimously recommended Mr. McDonald for a position in President Cleveland's Cabinet.

The President has notified Gen. Angar that the Oklahoma squatters must be driven from the Indian Territory at any cost. This looks like business.

An effort is being made in Congress to have the law repealed requiring publishers to pay the postage in advance on all papers sent to subscribers out of the country.

The friends of Arthur claim the honor of making Evans Senator from New York, and the friends of Blaine also claim the honor. This is refreshing.

A CARPET manufactory and a stove foundry are among the new enterprises talked of in Canton. The election of Cleveland don't seem to scare people over there.

If a few other States, in imitation of New York, would prefer brains to money bags in their choice of U. S. Senators, it would be a good thing for the country.

The Vienna correspondent of the London Daily Telegraph says it is reported that the Italian government is organizing a force of 20,000 men to occupy Tripoli.

A CONVENTION of Dynamiters is announced to be held in Paris in February. There is a growing feeling among these "patriots" against further attempts on public buildings.

The Crown Jewels, valued at many millions of dollars, which were deposited in the Tower of London for safe keeping, were not disturbed by the late dynamite explosion.

A WASHINGTON correspondent of the Cleveland Plain Dealer says: "Hon. Geo. L. Converse is said to be an aspirant for Cabinet honors. He would like to be Postmaster-General."

The Men's Department of the Insane Asylum at Indianapolis caught fire on Tuesday morning. The fire originated in the laundry room and entailed a loss of $85,000 to $100,000.

The Cleveland preachers who have been interviewed on the subject of long and short sermons, are almost unanimous in favor of short ones, not to exceed thirty minutes.

ANTHONY WALKER, a colored preacher of the Christian Church, was hung at Marshall, Texas, on Friday, for the murder of Wm. Henry, a white man, in 1883. He confessed his guilt.

Wm. M. EVERTS made himself very obnoxious to the Republicans when he defended Andy Johnson in the impeachment business. They have probably forgiven him for that indiscretion."

In England, France and Germany go on "conquering and to conquer." In Africa, it will not be long before the Africans will become as homeless and dependent as the North American Indians.

O'DONOVAN ROSA said to a reporter in New York on Monday: "I decline to say whether or not I knew in advance of the explosion in London, but I will tell you this much, there is more of it to come."

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND, to his great credit be it spoken, has declined invitations to dine with several aristocratic clubs in New York before he leaves for Washington. This is unlike Grant and Blaine.
